

Middle School Madness

Name: Armando Giotti

Please answer each question carefully.

1. To which character or scene in the musical did you most relate? (Which one made you think, "I know how that feels"?). Explain your answer.

I feel as though I am different than any character. I maybe a mix of ~~or~~ some characters but there is no character that I am, completely.

2. What do you think is the main message of Middle School Madness?

The main message of Middle School Madness is that since our parents have gone to school, school has only gotten harder.

3. How did you feel after seeing Middle School Madness? Explain.

I feel as though the musical Middle School Madness explains middle school completely, yet the play is not well known and not many students have heard of it.

Middle School Madness

Name: Marion Draper

Please answer each question carefully.

1. To which character or scene in the musical did you most relate? (Which one made you think, "I know how that feels"?). Explain your answer.

I can relate to the bus scene. My bus is insane! It's cramped, loud, and obnoxious. People scream in my ear, pull my hair and fart! Eww!

2. What do you think is the main message of Middle School Madness?

I think Middle <sup>school</sup> madness has a very obvious main message. The message is that you're not the only one who is going through troubles, everyone is, and that you're not alone.

3. How did you feel after seeing Middle School Madness? Explain.

I felt changed after Middle School Madness was done to me. After seeing what kids are going through I didn't feel alone. I felt welcome and happy.

Middle School Madness

Name: Kira Bamza

Please answer each question carefully.

1. To which character or scene in the musical did you most relate? (Which one made you think, "I know how that feels"?). Explain your answer.

The scene that I most ~~related~~ related to was the scene that all the boys couldn't focus in class because of the Spanish teacher. There's times when a certain teacher or person distracts me and I can't focus.

2. What do you think is the main message of Middle School Madness?

I ~~believe~~ believe that the main message about Middle School Madness was to show teens that hey it's alright to stand out. Also that other teens your age face the same problems.

3. How did you feel after seeing Middle School Madness? Explain.

I felt really good because I knew that I wasn't alone and that other Middle School students face the same problems.

Middle School Madness

Name: Emily Lewis

Please answer each question carefully.

1. To which character or scene in the musical did you most relate? (Which one made you think, "I know how that feels"?). Explain your answer.

The ~~sc~~ scene where the girls boy friend broke up with her made me say I can relate because I have gone through that.

2. What do you think is the main message of Middle School Madness?

Middle School is crazy and you may not know it, but some people are going through the same things as you.

3. How did you feel after seeing Middle School Madness? Explain.

After seeing Middle School Madness I wanted to make a difference in strough.

Middle School Madness

Name: Carly Beckwith

Please answer each question carefully.

1. To which character or scene in the musical did you most relate? (Which one made you think, "I know how that feels"?). Explain your answer.

I think I related to the bus scene. I am always being teased on the bus.

2. What do you think is the main message of Middle School Madness?

I think their message was don't feel like your alone in your problems. It happens to everyone.

3. How did you feel after seeing Middle School Madness? Explain.

I felt like I got the same problems as them.

Middle School Madness

Name: Tyrina Jones

Please answer each question carefully.

1. To which character or scene in the musical did you most relate? (Which one made you think, "I know how that feels"?). Explain your answer.

I mostly related to Maggie because she was the smart one of the show and she was the one that was in all of the clubs.

2. What do you think is the main message of Middle School Madness?

The main message of Middle School Madness is that everyone has a different personality and if someone bullied, don't be a bystander, help them or stand up for them.

3. How did you feel after seeing Middle School Madness? Explain.

After seeing MSM, I felt that after the musical any that has seen this play/musical should be ashamed of themselves if they decide to bully someone right after.

Middle School Madness

Name: Jasmine Finch

Please answer each question carefully.

1. To which character or scene in the musical did you most relate? (Which one made you think, "I know how that feels"?). Explain your answer.

I most related to the parent + science (Daddy im bored).
I know how that feels because
I sometimes feel like know matter what I do its wrong.

2. What do you think is the main message of Middle School Madness?

I think the main message of middle school madness is that we shouldn't judge others. We are all different.

3. How did you feel after seeing Middle School Madness? Explain.

I felt like really inspired.
The play was very relative to me.

Middle School Madness

Name: Tristan Hunzinger

Please answer each question carefully.

1. To which character or scene in the musical did you most relate? (Which one made you think, "I know how that feels"?). Explain your answer.

The musical about the Spanish teacher is a scene that I can relate to because there are a bunch of guys
that like their teachers

2. What do you think is the main message of Middle School Madness?

I think the main message of Middle School
Madness is to show the different challenges that Middle School kids may be facing.

3. How did you feel after seeing Middle School Madness? Explain.

I felt relieved to know that other students might be going through the same challenges as me.